

The Shroud of Turin

“This image...speaks to our heart and moves us to climb the hill of Calvary”
- Pope Francis

Sponsored by the St. Louis Archdiocesan Office of Consecrated Life, the Institute for Theological Encounter with Science and Technology, and the St. Louis Catholic Medical Association

Saturday, April 25, 2020 8:30 am to 1:30 pm (Central Time)

Cardinal Rigali Center
20 Archbishop May Drive
St. Louis, MO 63119

Conference Schedule

- 8:30 am Registration, Book Display, Shroud Display
8:50 am Welcome – Sr. Marysia Weber, Director, Office of Consecrated Life
8:55 am Introductions – Dr. Tom Sheahen, Director, ITEST
9:00 am Fr. John Nickolai
10:30 am Q & A
10:45 am Break
11:00 am Lunch
11:30 am Mark Antonacci
1:00 pm Q & A
1:15 pm Wrap up
1:30 pm Adjourn

Mark Antonacci

Mr. Antonacci has studied all aspects of the Shroud of Turin for over 35 years. He wrote The Resurrection of the Shroud, the most comprehensive book written on the Shroud until he released his book, Test the Shroud in 2016.

Father John Nickolai

Father Nickolai is currently Associate Pastor at St. Rose Philippine Duchesne parish in Florissant, Missouri. His master's thesis at Kenrick-Glennon Seminary was Why This Face? The Shroud of Turin and Icons of Christ.

Conference: $20 (includes lunch) Webinar: $10

(Free for Consecrated Religious, Priests, Seminarians, ITEST Members, and Medical Students)

Register by April 10 at www.archstl.org/turin Questions: 314.792.7252